PLANNING AHEAD

Being prepared and recording your own choices is very astute, and something we encourage, if not for yourself but to lift the decision-making burden on those left behind.

On the inside of this pamphlet is a form with the details required for formal registration of death, and an opportunity to note down some specific personal requirements for the funeral.

We do provide a service for you to prepay towards your funeral expenses, using BNZ client fund services account.

THE ROLE OF THE FUNERAL DIRECTOR

Our role, as your Funeral Director, put simply is to arrange and organize all legal and personal matters when death occurs and to facilitate a successful funeral.

WITHIN OUR ROLE WE CAN ORGANIZE FOR YOU:

- Burial plots or cremation bookings
- Doctor's certificates
- Venue booking for service and catering
- Celebrants or minister
- Organist, soloists, etc
- Recorded music;
- Newspaper notices; drafting and inserting
- Floral tributes
- Service sheets; layout and printing
- Ashes scattering or interments
- Memorials for burials or ashes
- Catering; At the Church, Funeral Home, in the family residence
- Payment of gratuities to Celebrant, organist etc
- Attendance to all legal documentation including; Registration of death; burial warrants; Medical refereeing for cremation etc.
- Thank-you cards, remembrance bookmarks and acknowledgment notices

In fact no matter what you require, as long it is physically and legally possible, we will endeavour to arrange anything to do with funerals, anywhere, at anytime.

Our office hours are Mon-Fri 8.00am-4.00pm, but your phone call will always be answered by one of our own staff, 24 hours a day. Call 09 828 5113.
